The Atlantic coast of Esposende, is part of the Natural Park of the North Coast, a protected area of great beauty, where you will be able to enjoy nice walks. A simple step out of the Hotel brings you to the beautiful beach or pinewoods of Ofir. Hundreds meters away lies the Cávado River. Its estuary is a sanctuary for several species of birds. When they fill the sky of Ofir they're offering a spectacle which you can enjoy from the terraces of the Hotel. The small town of Esposende is a few miles away, as well as Fão and Apúlia. The pre-historic place called 'Castro de S. Lourenço' near Esposende is a national monument and one of the best examples of the pre-historic culture in Portugal. Esposende also benefits from its proximity of cities like Porto (Oporto) (45 km), Viana de Castelo (25 km), Barcelos (15 Km), Póvoa de Varzim (12 km), Braga (35 km), always easy to reach by very good roads and highways.
